HRC COMMISSION STATEMENT: GEORGE FLOYD – DRAFT

The Orange County Human Relations Commission stands with African Americans and all Americans of goodwill who are outraged by the killing of George Floyd while in custody of Minneapolis police officers. Let our righteous indignation be tempered by the steely resolve to prevent avoidable tragedies like this from happening again. Let us commit to one another, as citizens of a great republic, to love and to serve one another in ways that build empathy, compassion, trust and community.

To these ends, the Commission pledges to mobilize its resources to take concrete action in Orange County, including (1) hosting quarterly dialogues among community members; (2) developing educational curricula that will reduce the potential for interpersonal tension and (3) expanding, where possible, education and training sessions with law enforcement.

We condemn the violence afflicting our country. We demand that those who are taking advantage of pain and grief to gain power, spread fear, impose chaos and harm others immediately stop doing so. Our brothers and sisters in law enforcement bear a burden for our benefit day in and day out. Law Enforcement does well when engaged in constant evaluation and re-evaluation to ensure justice is for all. And we implore our leaders to lead, to include, and to help us build a stronger and better America.

MEMO

TO: All Commissioners
FROM: Michael Reynolds, Commission Chair
RE: Human Relations Commission Action Plan

BACKGROUND:

The Human Relations Commission called a “Special Meeting” on Wednesday, June 3rd in response to the tragic death of George Floyd in the hands of Minneapolis Police officers and protests in various cities across Orange County. At this meeting, an ad-hoc was formed to draft an action plan for the Commission to discuss and review at the next regular Commission meeting.

DISCUSSION:

Commission will:

1. Hosting quarterly dialogues among community members.
 - Once per quarter meetings, commissioners would volunteer to moderate these meetings, each quarter we would go to a church, a mosque, a community center, just to moderate a listening and/or dialogue session.
 - Rotate commissioners to act as moderators.
 - Rotate groups that we will be listening to and moderating.
 - Chief of police of particular location invited to each quarterly meeting.
 - Leverage partnership with Orange County Interfaith Network, Interfaith Taskforce and other stakeholders in the community.
 - Meet your fellow commissioners – June or July meeting, each commissioner will spend approximately 5 minutes talking about their perspective and why they joined this commission.
2. Develop educational curricula that will reduce the potential for interpersonal tension
 - Currently, there is commission anti-hate campaign proposal that has been submitted to the Board of Supervisors
3. Expand, where possible, education and training sessions with law enforcement.
 - Council already does 4-6 hours per year of cultural sensitivity training for law enforcement.
 - Implicit bias training.
 - Rotations and listening sessions.
 - Highly-rated by law enforcement.
 - Positive dialog between law enforcement and communities whose members are often subject to stereotyping.

- Citizens' academies in Tustin and Anaheim, which allow members of the community to learn more about police work. Expand this model to other departments/agencies.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Commission approves the proposed Action Plan
